

Heather Cousino-Proch

Life, Health Agent and Mortgage Loan Officer

Heather Cousino-Proch joined Savage Mortgage Services in 2006. In 2011, she became a licensed Life Insurance agent with Savage and Associates and has since added her Health Insurance license in 2013. She enjoys explaining and educating her clients about the appropriate insurance and mortgage products. She has built a loyal and diverse customer base throughout her 20 years of experience.

Education

Heather started her mortgage career in 1994 and has continued to be a leader in the mortgage industry. As one of the first women mortgage brokers in Northwest Ohio, she has also added her life and health insurance licensing. Heather can now provide more services with her insurance licensing. She attended Bowling Green State University and graduated from St Ursula Academy in 1986.

Personal

Heather resides in Perrysburg with her husband Charles and their two grown children Alexia and Logan. As a family they enjoy laughing at the dinner table, boating and spending time on the lake together.

License and Designations:

Licensed in MI, OH
Ohio/Michigan Life and Health License
Mortgage Loan Officer NMLS: 132165

Contact:

office: 419.725.7342
heather.cousino-proch@savageandassociates.com

savageandassociates.com