

Wayne Milewski

Employee Benefit Consultant

Wayne is a native of Cleveland where he graduated from St. Ignatius High School and John Carroll University. Continuing with that Jesuit tradition, Wayne was a long time member of the Toledo St. John's Jesuit High School Board of Trustees including serving as Chairman of the Board.

After serving two years in the United States Army, Wayne was very fortunate to have met the late John F. Savage, the founder of Savage and Associates and joined the firm at a young age. At Savage and Associates, we believe that we are one of the elite financial services firms in the nation specializing in employee benefits, executive compensation programs, personal investments, retirement strategies, business insurance and property and casualty. Wayne allocates most of his daily activities in the medium and large-sized businesses.

His questions to these business clients are thought provoking, "What are you doing differently today? What are your short and long term strategies? Are they working? How often do you evaluate the course you're on? Are you using a 'wholistic' approach? Let's do things right and do them once." Wayne's knowledge, expertise and people skills may make him the ideal advisor for you.

Wayne focuses on results by employing a team of well-educated, informed, and competent associates who have integrity, pride in their work, and commitment to excellence. The team accomplishes its goals by providing outstanding client service.

Wayne believes strongly in the community and gives generously of his time and financial resources. He is a past president of the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Northwest Ohio. He served his industry as a past president of the Toledo Association of Life Underwriters. He serves as an outside advisor to the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation of Northwest Ohio and is a past Board Member of one of the area's largest hospital networks. He continues to serve as a board member of Savage-McVicker Property and Casualty.

Wayne has been married to his wife, Linda for over 40 years and has a daughter, Renee, and a son Stephen who is also an associate of Savage and Associates.
