

Wilma Glaser

Life Insurance Agent

Wilma Glaser began her career with Savage and Associates as John Savage's assistant in 1978 and eventually became an insurance agent in 1993. Following in John Savage's footsteps, Wilma builds long lasting relationships with her clients with integrity and honesty as her core values. She has built her business specializing in life insurance, long term care and annuities.

Personal

Wilma is proud to be working with her son, Adam, who is also an agent at Savage and Associates. Wilma and her husband enjoy their free time relaxing with family and friends and spoiling their grandson, Evan.
