

Megan Rightnowar

Financial Advisor

Megan joined Savage & Associates in 2015. She is a certified investment advisor and has earned her Life & Health Insurance Licenses in multiple states. Megan's focus is serving both individuals and families to maximize and protect their wealth. Her goal is to build strong, personal relationships with her clients and prepare them for a secure future. In addition to her practice, Megan takes time to speak with students to prepare them for the transition from college to their career.

Education

Megan graduated from Notre Dame Academy in 2011 and Miami University in 2015 with a bachelor's degree in economics.

Personal

Megan is the daughter of Pat and Patti Savage-McNamara. Megan and her husband Nick reside in Sylvania. Megan played division 1 tennis for two years at Wright State University. She enjoys staying active in the Toledo community by attending Rocket sporting events, Pure Barre workouts, playing tennis and spending time with her family. Megan is president of the Miami University Toledo Alumni Association and a member of the young professional committee for the American Cancer Society.
